

Fundraising Ideas

Have a "Jeans Friday" to help with your fundraising: Every employee who wears jeans on the specified day would then make a contribution to your fundraising efforts.

Susan G. Komen Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner: A portion of the proceeds will go towards your team fundraising goal.

Make a loose change jar: Make jars/buckets for people to throw in their loose change.

Jam Night: Have a local band perform at your establishment.

$5 Challenge (Fundraising Happy Hour): Start an event on Facebook for a Friday 4pm-7pm or weekend event encouraging people to donate $5, the price of a fancy coffee drink, a glass of wine or beer at happy hour. Remind them that their $5 is going towards a great cause and include why this is important to you.

Tools for TaTas : A Unique Garage Sale - sell hammers, screwdrivers, wrenches, trimmers & weed whacker you get the idea.

Bunco for Boobies: Entry is $_____ (come up with a dollar amount) Ask local businesses to donate prizes, food, coupons, goodie bags, etc.

Crop for Cancer: We invited scrapbookers, stampers and card makers to crop for the day. For a spot at a 5 to 6 ft table we asked for a $10 donation.

Bake Sale: Bake brownies, cookies, cakes, cupcakes whatever your little tummy desires and ask for a donation.

Give Breast Cancer the Boot: Collect donations in a pink boot at an intersection/in front of business. Get a permit and/or ask permission to stand in front of a local hotel or business near a traffic light; get several "pink boots" (rain boots spray painted pink, pink timberlands, etc) and make signs (picket-style) and collect spare change donations.
